NCO Group, Inc. Continues to Expand Through Acquisition Of Two Accounts Receivable Management Companies

FORT WASHINGTON, Pa., Oct. 1 /PRNewswire/ -- NCO Group, Inc. (Nasdaq: NCOG), a leading provider of accounts receivable management and related teleservices, reported today that it has completed the acquisition of two accounts receivable management companies. NCO purchased the companies for $4.7 million in cash, a $1.0 million note, and $1.1 million of its common stock. These acquisitions represent combined annual revenues in excess of $7.0 million.

According to Michael J. Barrist, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of NCO Group, Inc., "These acquisitions continue the strategy which we have mapped out for our investors. Specifically, each is expected to be immediately accretive and readily meets NCO's evaluation criteria, such as size, service quality, diversification of client base and, importantly, the ability to integrate the acquired businesses into both our operating and cost models."

After completing these acquisitions, the Company will have over 1,600 employees and will provide services to over 7,500 active clients through 21 processing centers in 15 states.

ADVANTAGE Financial Services, Inc.

- Increases NCO's geographic presence in Ohio and expands operations into Tennessee
- Further penetration into medical, telecommunications and commercial markets

ADVANTAGE Financial Services, Inc. is an accounts receivable management company located in Dayton, Ohio and Bristol, Tennessee. The addition of ADVANTAGE Financial Services, Inc. will expand the Company's geographic presence and will allow NCO further penetration into the medical, telecommunications and commercial markets. Ron Nischwitz the former owner of ADVANTAGE Financial Services and a past president of the American Collectors Association, will remain with the Company on a consulting basis. ADVANTAGE Financial Services, Inc. had 1996 revenues of approximately $5.1 million.

Credit Acceptance Corp.

- Expands NCO's geographic presence into Western Pennsylvania
- Further penetration into medical market

Credit Acceptance Corp. is an accounts receivable management company located in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. The addition of Credit Acceptance Corp. will expand the Company's geographic presence into Western Pennsylvania and will provide NCO with further penetration into the medical market. Mr. Barrist commented, "Credit Acceptance Corp. has secured a powerful position in the medical collections arena in the Pittsburgh area. From a client service, integration and profitability standpoint, this company was a natural fit for us." Credit Acceptance Corp. had 1996 revenues of $2.3 million.

NCO Group, Inc. is a leading provider of accounts receivable management and related services utilizing an extensive teleservices infrastructure. The Company develops and implements customized accounts receivable management solutions for clients employing advanced workstations and sophisticated call management systems. The Company currently provides these services on a national basis from 21 call centers located in fifteen states. NCO Group, Inc. is traded on the Nasdaq National Market under the symbol NCOG.
